

“CRISIS”

Across

3. Doctor Ferguson discovers that President Ferrago has a _____ on his brain and needs an immediate operation.
7. A letter written to Dr. Ferguson stating that Helen has been kidnapped and that he should let the dictator die is intercepted by Ferrago's _____.
9. Ramon Novarro, who played Colonel Adragon, was an idol on the _____ early in his career. (two words)
10. The name of the dictator of the nameless Latin American country in which the movie "Crisis" takes place _____.
13. Crisis was originally banned in this country that is a neighbor of the United States.
14. Cary Grant told MGM that he would play the leading role in Crisis, but only if it was directed by Richard _____.
15. Gilbert Roland also plays the part of Serge Stanieff in this 1933 Cary Grant movie (four words)
16. Dr. Ferguson and his wife _____ are in Latin America because they are on vacation.
19. Dr. Ferguson's wife is kidnapped by the _____ and they try to use her to blackmail the brain surgeon into killing Ferrago on the operating table.
20. Ferrago survives the brain surgery but stress, excitement, and sudden movement when the palace is under attack cause him to die of a _____, a copious discharge of blood from the blood vessels.

Down

1. At the beginning of the movie, a car _____ takes place outside a sporting event, frightening Dr. Ferguson and his wife.
2. George Tabori wrote the story, The _____, on which Crisis was based.
4. Eugene and Helen Ferguson were kidnapped by the president's troops and taken to the capital by _____.
5. The part of Raoul Ferrago is played Jose _____.
6. Vicente Gomez plays the background music in Crisis using this instrument _____.
8. Crisis was also known in the USA by the working title _____.
11. Lacking water on the train, Eugene Ferguson uses _____ to brush his teeth.
12. Ferguson's occupation (two words)
17. A person holding complete autocratic control who rules absolutely and often oppressively _____.
18. To seize and detain or carry away by unlawful force or fraud and often with a demand for ransom _____.