

“GAMBLING SHIP”

Across

2. Roscoe Karns also plays the part of _____ in Alice in Wonderland. (1933)
5. Two ladies talking about Corbin's acquittal..."I saw him at the Bijou once. Gee, but he was handsome." "But he kills people." "So does _____ ."
6. Ace Corbin was tried for this crime.
9. "I'm just going to roam and ____ and see what happens."
10. To bet on an uncertain outcome
11. One of the two directors of this film, Max _____
14. Another name for a large seagoing vessel
15. Ace makes a cross-country trek by train from Chicago to _____. (two words)
16. The made up name that Ace Corbin gives Eleanor.
17. A large, disorderly crowd or a group of persons working to unlawful ends
18. Benita Hume also played a part in this Cary Grant movie (1936)
19. A 1935 Cary Grant movie in which Roscoe Karns plays the part of Nick Williams. (four words)

Down

1. The Indian Building that the train stops at is in this city.
3. Ace (a gambler) poses as a _____ .
4. Glenda Farrell also plays the part of Regina Bush in the 1942 Cary Grant movie _____ . (five words)
7. Ace's casino is called the Casino Del ____ .
8. Another 1940 Cary Grant movie in which Roscoe Karns (Blooey) plays the role of a reporter. (three words)
12. Cary's character's first name or a playing card marked in its center with one pip
13. The clerk in the Indian store tells Ace Corbin that he's _____ when he says that her wares are made in a factory.
20. Gambling Ship is one of _____ Cary Grant films that came out in 1933.