

“LADIES SHOULD LISTEN”

Across

3. Albert's "big invention" imitates a _____ . (two words)
5. Ramon Cintos makes Julian sign a paper and counts to ten in this language, which Julian professes not to know. "How will I know when you get to ten?"
6. Cary Grant's character's first name in Ladies Should Listen. John Lennon named one of his sons this same name.
7. Julian de Lussac vows to wear the same ___ for the next ten years or until he can find out Marguerite's last name.
8. Julian de Lussac plays an investor who has an option on some mineral rights in this South American country.
11. Julian de Lussac slides across this to answer the phone.
12. When Marguerite won't agree to see Julian again, he threatens to _____ . (two words)
16. _____ Westman plays Susie Flamberg in Ladies Should Listen.
17. The name of the mysterious "lady in distress" that Julian falls in love with at first sight, although it takes him a while to learn her last name. (two words)
18. This is the chemical in which Julian invested, whose uses are to make fertilizer and modern military explosives, to name just a few.
19. The doorman's name is _____ .
20. Marguerite drives this make of car.

Down

1. Cary's character sings this song (four words)
2. According to De Lussac, housewives always hurry home to their husbands at a quarter to _____ .
4. Anna is the _____ in Julian's apartment building. (two words)
9. Julian and Albert haven't been able to put a motor in the "big invention" because of _____ . (three words)
10. The setting for Ladies Should Listen
13. Julian says to Paul, "Oh don't worry about Susie, our lives stretch out before us like a _____ . (two words)
14. Julian's manservant, Albert, invents something that cleans his shaving _____ .
15. "Kiss me, _____ !"