

“KISS AND MAKE UP”

Across

7. "Do I hit the ceiling Whenever you're near? I don't hit the ceiling I hit the _____."
8. In Holiday (1938), this is the profession of Nick Potter, played by Edward Everett Horton.
12. Helen Mack (Anne) plays the part of Dr. Lamar's _____.
13. Lamar refers to the affairs he has with his patients as "lovely _____."
14. Lamar's suggested diet for his patients is lean ham, plain lettuce, and dry _____ . (two words)
17. Maurice Lamar sings "Love _____ By Two"
18. This furry mammal pops out from under Maurice Lamar's hat at the end of Kiss and Make Up.
19. Maurice Lamar lives and works in this city
20. Anne's love for Marcel dies when in a taxi accident she discovers he wears a _____.

Down

1. "At night, bandage your ankles, _____ your face, wear gloves...." are some of Dr. Lamar's beauty tips. (two words)
2. Edward Everett Horton quote - "You've even done something to her _____ ! And I liked them as they were. I married those _____ for better or for worse."
3. Edward Everett Horton played Mr. Witherspoon in this 1944 Cary Grant movie. (four words)
4. Helen Mack also plays the part of Molly Malloy in this 1940 Cary Grant movie. (three words)
5. Dr. Lamar is this type of surgeon
6. Anne and Marcel sing a song about this favorite meal. (four words)
9. Dr. Maurice _____ is Cary's character's name in this film
10. "Little by little, I molded you as _____ molded his statue, until you became my most beautiful achievement."
11. Kiss and Make Up was directed by _____ Thompson.
15. "Mother'd like her hips cut down before she _____."
16. The part of Eve Caron is played by Genevieve _____.