

“PEOPLE WILL TALK”

www.carygrant.net

www.carygrant.net

www.carygrant.net

www.carygrant.net

created by Audrey Walstrom

Across

5. The devoted friend who Dr. Praetorius fiercely protects
6. Dr. Praetorius explained in his hearing that he was given Shunderson's "body" because he was keeping company with a lady who happened to be the _____'s daughter and he knew that Noah wanted a cadaver of his own.
8. Dr. Praetorius and Shunderson put this in Shunderson's cheap wooden coffin so that no one would know that he was still alive. (two words)
9. Margaret Hamilton is best known for playing this role in The Wizard of Oz (five words)
12. A branch of medicine that deals with the diseases and routine physical care of the reproductive system of women, Dr. Praetorius specializes in this branch of medicine
13. "I consider _____ properly injected into a patient as effective in maintaining life as Adrenaline, and a belief in miracles has been the difference between living and dying as often as any surgeon's scalpel," Doctor Praetorius said.
16. Deborah cried because she loved Noah and also because she "went and put all those candles on that cake when you're really only _____ years old."
17. Dr. Praetorius could be described this way; not conforming to established doctrine
20. People Will Talk was directed by Joseph _____

Down

1. Containing a developing embryo, fetus, or unborn offspring within the body
2. Walter Slezak also played the part of Baron Von Luber in this 1942 Cary Grant movie (four words)
3. Professor Barker (Walter Slezak) plays this instrument (two words)
4. "Our American mania for sterile packages has removed the flavor from most of our foods - that there was never a perfume like an old-time grocery store. Now they smell like _____," Dr. Praetorius says. (two words)
7. Curt Goetz's play and film, "_____," was used by Mankiewicz as the basis for the screenplay for People Will Talk. (two words)
10. Referring to the birth of Deborah's baby (who he didn't father) Noah said, "Comes the dawn I'll stand on that window sill and _____."
11. Deborah gives her husband, Noah, an elaborate electric _____ for his birthday (two words)
14. Doctor Noah Praetorius said, "Professor Elwell, you are the only man I know who can say 'malignant' the way other people say '_____!'"
15. Noah does this for the hospital orchestra
18. Miss Crain attracts Dr. Praetorius's attention when she _____ during a classroom lecture.
19. During the early days of his practice, Dr. Praetorius dispensed medical advice in the guise of a _____.